Final

Evaluation

Forums are a great way for us to interact as a class and discuss the week’s readings and other issues of study in the course. Forum postings are due each week. You are expected to make your own original postings on the assigned topic(s), AND then you are each expected to respond to at least two other students’ postings. Please contribute at least 3 postings per forum assignment (please note that sometimes we have more than one topic in a forum each week). I want you to think critically about what you’re writing since your classmates and I will be reading them.

Write as clearly and effectively (as error-free, that is) as possible. You must respond during the week the Forum is assigned.

Tests

You will have one exam in this course, which will be your final. The exam will be administered the last week (Week 8) of class and will be due the last day of class. This exam will be cumulative and cover material from Week 1 to Week 8. In only extreme circumstances will students be allowed to make up tests.

Quizzes

You will take four short quizzes throughout the eight-week term.

Assignments

You will have two assignments throughout this course:

- Assignment 1—Group work beginning Week 2 and ending Week 4
- Assignment 2—Individual paper due Week 6 Click here for an online APA reference.

Retrieval of Graded Content

Each assignment that is submitted will be returned to you as a file with “.Graded” at the end of the

Course Guidelines

Citation and Reference Style

- Students will follow APA format as the citation and reference style for courses in the COMMUNICATION program area.
- Please note that no formal citation style is graded on forum assignments in the School of Arts & Humanities—only attribution of sources (please see details regarding forum communication below).

Tutoring

- Tutor.com offers online homework help and learning resources by connecting students to certified tutors for one-on-one help. AMU and APU students are eligible for 10 free hours of tutoring provided by APUS (only when accessed through the APUS online library). Tutors are available 24/7 unless otherwise noted. Tutor.com also has a SkillCenter Resource Library offering educational resources, worksheets, videos, websites and career help. Accessing these resources does not count against tutoring hours and is also available 24/7. Please visit the APUS Library and search for 'Tutor' to create an account.

Late Assignments

School of Arts & Humanities Late Policy

Students are expected to submit classroom assignments by the posted due date and to complete the course according to the published class schedule. As adults, students, and working professionals, I understand you must manage competing demands on your time. Should you need additional time to complete an assignment, please contact me before the due date so we can discuss the situation and determine an acceptable resolution.

Work posted or submitted after the assignment due date will be reduced by 10% of the potential total score possible for each day late up to a total of five days, including forum posts/replies, quizzes, and assignments. Beginning on the sixth day late through the end of the course, late work, including forum posts/replies, quizzes, and assignments, will be accepted with a grade reduction of 50% of the potential total score earned.

Turn It In

Assignments are automatically submitted to Turnitin.com within the course to verify originality and detect potential plagiarism and academic dishonesty. Turnitin.com will analyze an assignment submission and report a similarity score. Your assignment submission is automatically processed through the assignments area of the course when you submit your work.

Academic Dishonesty

- Academic Dishonesty incorporates more than plagiarism, which is using the work of others without citation. Academic dishonesty includes any use of content purchased or retrieved from web services such as CourseHero.com or Scribd. Additionally, allowing your work to be placed on such web services is academic dishonesty, as it is enabling the dishonesty of others. The copy and pasting of content from any web page, without citation as a direct quote, is academic dishonesty. When in doubt,
Submission Guidelines

- All assignments in COMMUNICATION courses must be submitted in standard formats such as Microsoft Word, attached in the assignment area unless otherwise specified.
- Some assignments may have very specific requirements for formatting (such as font, margins, etc) and submission file type (such as .docx, .pdf, etc). See the assignment instructions for details.
- It is your responsibility to ensure the all submitted work can be accessed and opened by the instructor. Assignments should not be sent to the instructor through “Messages” or E-mail but must be submitted through the Assignments area directly.

Disclaimer Statement

- Course content may vary from the outline to meet the needs of a particular group or class.

Communicating in Forum discussions

- All initial forum discussion posts are due on Thursdays by 11:55 p.m. ET throughout the course.
- All peer responses are due on Sundays by 11:55 p.m. ET throughout the course.
- Forums are the heart of the interaction in this course. The more engaged and lively the exchanges, the more interesting and fun the course will be. Only substantive comments will receive credit. Although there is a final posting day/time after which the instructor will grade and provide feedback, it is not sufficient to wait until the last day to contribute your comments/questions on the forum. The purpose of the forums is to actively participate in an on-going discussion about the assigned content.
- “Substantive” means comments that contribute something new and important to the discussion. A message that simply says “I agree” is not substantive. A substantive comment contributes a new idea or perspective, a follow-up question to a point made, a response to a question, an example or illustration of a key point, an inconsistency in an argument, etc.
- As a class, if we run into conflicting view points, we must respect each individual's own opinion. Hateful and hurtful comments towards other individuals, students, groups, peoples, and/or societies will not be tolerated.
- You must post a response to the weekly forum prompt and post the required number of replies to other students during the week due. Please refer to the grading rubric and/or weekly forum instructions for specific expectations on the number of replies and word count requirements.
- Late posts to a forum will be subject to the School late policy and may not be accepted without instructor approval.

Quizzes and Exams

- Quizzes and exams may consist of true/false, multiple choice, and short essay questions. If included in a course, each quiz/exam is generally accessible only once. Once a quiz/exam is accessed, you may not be able to access it again if you disconnect. Therefore, allocate adequate time to complete your quiz and ensure you have a solid internet connection. Weekly quizzes must be submitted by Sunday 11:55 p.m. ET of the assigned week. Late quizzes or exams may be accepted and subject to the School late policy. Please contact your instructor to discuss as needed.
